

PROFESSIONAL, SPECIAL EVENT CATERING DESIGNED FOR ALL BUDGETS BY DORSEY CULINARY CATERING

Roseville, MI- November 1, 2012-Dorsey Culinary Academy opens its doors to the public as a full service catering company, bringing to the local communities a unique mission to offer its guests:

“We have an amazing collection of highly skilled chefs that truly enjoy creative and individual menu designs for each of our clients needs” said Chef Schellig, Catering Manager.

“Our catering also gives our students the opportunity growth with real world experience that translates to cost saving and excellent guest satisfaction for our clients.”

Since 2008, Dorsey Culinary Academy has been successfully training men and woman in culinary arts. In 2011, Dorsey Culinary Academy earned the prestigious programmatic accreditation by the American Culinary Federation Educational Foundation. Each class day, they have been serving delicious food to their own staff and students.

In 2012, Dorsey Culinary Academy opened Dorsey Catering, a full service caterer with the unique mission that focuses on guest satisfaction and on creating a real world work experience for their students. Students are responsible for the complete execution of each party while being closely guided by one of the 20 experienced Chefs that make up the Dorsey Culinary Faculty. Dorsey Catering has competitive advantages:

- Have a collection of highly skilled Chefs ensuring quality in every step of production.
- Offer custom menus. Our students and Chefs are flexible and love the opportunity to showcase their culinary talents.
- The culinary team can cook in front of your guests at no extra charge. These action stations add value and will be the talk of your party.
- Specialize in cooking from scratcheliminating the need to use pre-made, processed products.
- Can accommodate all food allergy and special dietary requests.
- Have two locations to conveniently serve all of the Metro Detroit area.
